Christmas time is coming: In December, on the 9th or 10th, we will have a movie along with babysitting, so that parents can go out and shop. The December letter will firm up the date, time, and specifics. There will be a form you will need to sign, which will be available online and at the front desk window, should you want to take advantage of this opportunity to get some Christmas shopping done.

Country Kids Daycare 307-851-6510: You may have noticed the Daycare located at 9065 Hwy 789 near, Wyoming Custom Meats. They are open and ready for new enrollment! Shaylee Cruickshank would like to let you know, they serve breakfast, lunch and snack. There is also a preschool program built into the daily routine, along with fun themed activities throughout the day. Children 1-5 years old are eligible. They offer several years of experience from teaching and aiding in classrooms at CDS (Child Development Services).

A reminder from the Hudson Post Office: A message from the Post Master. Please be advised. To ensure timely and accurate delivery of your mail, please be sure to use your PO Box number as your correct address, as we have no physical address delivery. If you are receiving a package and they will not accept a PO Box, either list your PO Box on the second address line option, along with your physical address, or use the Zip Code Plus Four feature (i.e. If your PO Box number is #56, then you would use 82515-0056). Thank you!

Please come and check out Hudson's Closet (Same hours as the Town Hall):   For the next few months, Hudson's Closet needs coats in all sizes, and teens, youth, infant clothing. We are currently out of room for Adult clothing. We have a lot of clean, cute, helpful clothing items, dishes, bedding, towels, etc. Take items that you know others could use, or if, you find something useful for yourself. Items are free of charge. We have quite a supply on hand of clothing, baby clothing, diapers, etc., along with some coats in all sizes. Do come in and check out what we have on hand, as the Closet also serves as a means of exchange to assist each other. Our goal is for "peace of mind", and a sense of community. To DONATE: Items need to be free from stain/rips, in working condition, and small supplies-items that contain all their pieces and parts. The Methodist Thrift Shop has graciously donated gift certificates. For more information or to volunteer, please inquire at the Hall office.

Free bread is typically delivered to the Town Hall on Wednesday afternoons, around 3p.m. This is a service provided by the Hudson Baptist Church, so be sure to thank Craig Waters, when you see him around.

METER READ PAD AND/OR METER PIT's: It is generally around the 20th of each month that meters are read. Please continue to check your meter, and confirm that it is safe to access for our reader. With incumbent cold weather, please make sure area is free from ice, snow, high weeds, and/or materials piled on, or around them.

BRUSH PILE: You will need to come to the Town Hall, sign a log book and check out a key to get into the pile. For Waste Management Providers: Wyoming Waste Management – 332-2909 or 856-5354 / Lander Valley Sanitation – 330-3181.

Library Notes from Julie: NEW Library Hours - Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday's from 2 to 5p.m. Remember, the library now has an answering machine, so do leave a message if you need anything, 332-5770. Remember, I'm taking donations for the "Angel Stop" Christmas toy drive for Hudson's children. I do apologize for my absences, and thank you for your patience, while I deal with health issues. Have a beautiful Thanksgiving, and remember, I'm thankful for each of you! Until next time, Julie

"Angel Stop". A toy drive for Hudson's children and young people whose families may be able to benefit from this. New and gently used toys, games, etc. can be dropped off at the Library or Town Hall. If you want an invitation to shop for free during Christmas week, just let me know and you will receive one, with a date and time to come to either Library or Town Hall.
